The Cedars Hahndorf Tour

On Sunday 01 March, my wife Brenda and I took part in the Cedars tour. We took our two granddaughters with us, aged 9 & 7 years, and they had a lovely time to. We had a picnic lunch in the gardens after our tour of the house, which the girls were able to view (without touching anything, not easy at that age!). They also enjoyed the walk around the property following the arrows from start to finish.

The paintings, of course, were beautiful and the studio would have been a dream to work in. All in all, we had a great day.

Other painting groups

Want to know what is happening in other art painting groups?

If members haven't already noticed, recent newsletters from other painting groups are now kept in a folder in the studio bookcase. Sometimes exhibitions, workshops and demonstrations etc are advertised that are open to everyone, not just to members of that group.

HAGAS newsletters are also filed in case you have lost yours and need information.
