sure we can all continue to enjoy such fantastic facilities, by attending this function. The short meeting to elect committee members and office bearers for 2012/13 will be immediately followed by a free painting demonstration

by well respected South Australian artist Trevor Newman.

*Please try to be on time
so we can start promptly.*

Clubroom upgrade; your help is needed

The floor covering in the kitchen, hall, office and painting studio is to be replaced in the week beginning 25 June. As you can imagine, this means a lot of 'shifting' (and hopefully cleaning up) to allow the work to be carried out. This is a general call to members for help on Saturdays 23 June and/or 30 June to first move items out ... then move back in once the carpet has been laid.

Work will commence at 10am on each Saturday ... and if you have a hand trolley please bring it along.

Free Painters please note:
the studio will not
be available for use
from Friday 22 June until Monday 02 July.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN WATERCOLOUR SOCIETY

Why hasn't South Australia got it's own Watercolour Society?

In an attempt to rectify this anomaly I am gathering names and contact details (preferably email addresses) of people interested in joining such a Society.

The initial meeting will be held at 10am Sunday 6th May in the Adelaide Art Society Gallery, Margaret St., North Adelaide.

If you would like to be involved in this exciting venture and want to attend the first meeting to help shape the progress of watercolour art in South Australia please get in touch.

You can complete the details on the form and mail it to me or email them to me at grit@skymesh.com.au (mention SAWS in the subject) or visit my blog at <http://ritterart.blogspot.com> and complete an online form or call me on 0419849226 with your details.

I am keen to ensure that as many watercolourists as possible have the opportunity to be involved in the formation of this new society.

This is a unique opportunity for you for you to make your mark in art in South Australia.
